Important information:

1. It will only be possible for the University to refund fees that have already been paid for the semester in question if your application for disenrolment and the application for a refund of semester fees are received by Student Affairs by no later than the first day of the lecture period of the semester in question, and your student ID card (chip card) is attached to the refund application.
2. After the end of the first day of the lecture period, refunds can only be made for the semester in question upon application if the student has been admitted and enrolled at another higher education institution in a restricted admission degree programme by no later than one month from the commencement of the lecture period and if the application for a refund, together with the student ID card (chip card) has been received by us by before the end of that period. As proof that you satisfy these requirements, please attach the letter of admission and an enrolment certificate issued by your new university to your application for a refund.
The same applies where students have successfully completed an aptitude assessment procedure or aptitude test required for enrolment in a degree programme at another higher education institution, and have been enrolled at that other institution within one month.
